

Admission Procedure and Guidelines

Admission Guidelines

- The child should have met the below listed criteria on 31st July of the calendar year in which admission is sought.

★ Foundation : 2 yrs & above

★ Pre KG : 3 years & Above

★ Jr KG : 4 yrs & above

★ Sr KG : 5 yrs & above

★ Other Grades : 1 year per class to be added.

- For admission to Foundation, Pre Kg and JKG, the child participates in an informal interaction to assess school readiness, developmental milestones, and any special educational or developmental needs that may require support.
 - For admission to Grades SKG to IX and XI, a written assessment is conducted to determine the student's position on the learning continuum and to evaluate their competencies across various learning domains. The assessment is designed to gauge language proficiency (English and Hindi), mathematical aptitude, general awareness, and other subject-specific skills, as applicable. The written assessment is followed by an interaction with the student.
- Form for classes I & above. Transfer certificate (TC) issued by previous school is required.

- For admission to Grades X and XII, there is a provision to consider only transfer cases from another district (i.e. district other than Ghaziabad). In such cases, Transfer certificate (TC) issued by the previous school is required.

CBSE Clause for X & XII admission for candidates from another district:

- ★ Application for admission to be given.
 - ★ Progress report of qualifying class IX / XI (as applicable) of the child & their CBSE Registration Number.
 - ★ Copy of Transfer orders of parents or original affidavit as proof on account of actual shifting of family/house from one place to another with valid reasons.
 - ★ Declaration by Head of the Institution in the prescribed format already sent by this office.
- For admission to Grade XI, each case will be considered subject to the availability of seats. Exciting Scholarships are available for meritorious students. Please contact school for more details on 9818166400
